[REDACTED] asked me to tell you that a translation of the Soviet foreign trade handbook containing 1956 data is available from the Photoduplication Service, Library of Congress, Washington 25, D. C. It is numbered JPRS/DC-349 and dated 4 November 1953. Its title page bears an incorrect date: "Foreign Trade of the USSR 1953 (Statistical Survey)". (I presume that by now someone has discovered the misprint, and that the title page should read "1956".) It was translated from the Russian by the US Joint Publications Research Service.

Sincerely yours,
